KENNESAW, GEORGIA (December 5, 2005) – The City of Kennesaw Parks and Recreation Department, in cooperation with Occupational Health Solutions, is making flu shot vaccinations available to the public during a Community Health Fair tomorrow, Tuesday, December 6 from 2pm to 7pm at the Kennesaw Community Center, 2753 Watts Drive.

Cost for the flu shot is $25 payable by cash or check only. Credit cards will not be accepted.

No appointment is necessary to receive a flu shot, however, the vaccinations are available on a first come, first serve basis while supply lasts.

Anyone age 9 years or older is eligible to receive the flu vaccination. All recipients must sign a consent form prior to receiving the vaccination.

The Health Fair will also feature vendors and healthcare providers offering a wide range of information and services, including free screenings for cholesterol, hepatitis C, glucose, glaucoma, blood pressure, and free chair massages. Visitors will also have the opportunity to donate blood through an American Red Cross Blood Drive.

For more information about the Community Health Fair please call David Pies, Recreation Programs Coordinator, at (770) 422-9714 or visit www.kennesaw-ga.gov
